

Concussion Protocol

Suspect a player has a concussion, removed from play or practice immediately!

Removed From Play Or Practice

If you suspect a player has a concussion, they are to be removed from play or practice immediately. Email the league at info@lwbbba.org the player's name, date and location.

Written Clearance

If a player is suspected of having a concussion, they will not be allowed to return until the league receives written clearance from a licensed physician. Please send written notification to info@lwbbba.org.

What Are The Signs And Symptoms Of A Concussion?

If you think that your child has sustained a concussion, you might see any or all of the following signs:

- Appears dazed or confused
- Is confused about assignment or position
- Forgets sports plays
- Is unsure of game, score, or opponent
- Moves clumsily
- Answers questions slowly
- Loses consciousness (even briefly)
- Shows behavior or personality change
- Can't recall events prior to hit or fall
- Can't recall events after hit or fall

Information provided by Sports Concussion Institute

Image By Max Andrews - Own work. This file was derived from: Concussion mechanics.svg, CC BY-SA 3.0, Link

Please bear in mind that these are general guidelines and must not be used in place of the central role that physicians must play in protecting the health safety of athletes.